

BURCH LYONS DIED ON THE GALLOWS

THE CHICAGO MURDERER WAS HANGED THIS NOON.

Legally Executed for the Killing of Albert Mason Last February—Durrant is Rattled and His Nerve Fails Him For the First Time Since His Arrest—Makes Admissions.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Burch Lyons was successfully hanged this morning for the murder of Albert Mason last February.

San Francisco, October 11.—Under the rigid cross-examination of District Attorney Barnes yesterday Durrant made a number of answers that are regarded as decidedly incriminating, inasmuch as they appear to be in direct conflict with the well-established facts, and then changed his replies when he realized that he was on dangerous ground. The maze in which Durrant lost his bearings was in telling about the afternoon he spent at the ferries waiting to see if Blanche Lamont would not appear. He had been given "ferry" clew by a stranger whom he had never seen since, and he had not spoken to any one of this clew. This conflicts with Vogel's testimony.

Prosecutor Barnes asked the prisoner if he had ever made a written statement of his whereabouts on the day Blanche Lamont was murdered, and, receiving an affirmative reply, District Attorney Barnes asked the following question:

"Is it not a fact that you sent a written statement of your case to your attorney and wrote on the envelope, 'To be opened if I am convicted and to be returned if I am acquitted?'"

The excitement caused by the question was intense. In the hum of voices Durrant's answer was lost and the stenographer was asked to read the reply. "I never sent an envelope to my attorneys bearing such an inscription," said he.

Durrant next identified the clothes of Blanche Lamont, but denied he had hidden them in the belfry. The lawyers could not shake his former story about the last time he had seen Blanche.

TALK OF UNION.

Interesting Matters Dealt with by Congregationalists.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The second day's session of the National Council of the Congregational churches of the United States took on an international aspect yesterday, when delegates were welcomed from the unions of England, and Wales, and Canada. The council considered the matter of erecting a memorial to John Robinson, founder of Congregationalism. A committee reported that $1,200 had already been subscribed toward the erection of a church at Gainsborough, England, where the pilgrims worshipped. It was intended to dedicate this church next year. Resolutions recommending that American ministers attend these exercises were adopted. The report of the committee on union with Free Baptists says there are two ways in which the union of separate denominations can be made visible to the world. One is by actual, corporate union, the other by confederation, each denomination maintaining its separate existence, but meeting and conferring together at stated times for their mutual advantage and the prosecution of their common work. Where corporate union cannot be secured confederation may partly serve the purpose of exhibiting the unity of believers.

Chinese Disturbances Continue.

London, Oct. 11.—A Paris dispatch to the Times reports that the Catholic mission agency at Lyons has received letters reporting aggressions against the Europeans and Christians of the central provinces of China. The mission stations at Nan Ching have been destroyed and some of the converts killed and others wounded. The Russian consul, in the absence of the French consul, was appealed to. He insisted that a telegram be sent to the local authorities, ordering stringent measures for the restoration of order. Nevertheless, the disturbances continue.

Coal Operators' Ultimatum.

Centerville, Iowa, Oct. 11.—The coal operators met in conference here and sent an ultimatum to the miners, stating that they would pay only 80 cents a ton for mining. The Centerville, Forbush and Brazil operators were represented. The operators on the Milwaukee road, in the Mystic field, sent a letter, saying that 80 cents was all they would give. Representatives of the Whitebreast and Centerville Black-Coal company were included in the conference, and all operators are in favor of 80 cents. The miners' committee will report to a mass meeting to be held at Centerville today.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 11.—The Supreme Court yesterday handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the court below, and granted a writ of mandamus compelling the County of Bay to pay to the state $108,000 in back taxes, which have been the subject of controversy for several years. The decision practically settles cases against other counties amounting to several hundred thousand dollars.

SYMPATHY FOR DEBS.

Illinois Federation of Labor Has a Warm Debate.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 11.—Eugene V. Debs furnished the State Federation of Labor with a topic for a lively discussion at yesterday's session. A resolution was adopted declaring that E. V. Debs was unjustly condemned to imprisonment, being sent there without trial by jury, extending sympathy to him so far as the methods employed by Judge Woods had caused his incarceration, but "not endorsing the warfare being waged by Mr. Debs against trades unionism generally and the various railroad brotherhoods in particular, and calling upon him to cease his unholy stab at the only means that can be used by the wage workers to better their condition." In the debate which followed Debs was very highly and warmly eulogized and violently criticised and denounced. Finally the resolution was adopted.

An assessment of 1 per cent per month per capita was ordered on unions represented directly for legislative work. The committee on convict labor presented a report denouncing commerce in the products of state prisons, asking unions of other states to secure the abolishment of the contract system in favor of employing convicts in making materials for good roads and asking the employment of convicts in the manufacture of such goods and products as are consumed by all the various state institutions. The report was re-committed for criticism of cigar-makers for opposing a certain bill before the legislature.

The following officers were elected: President, Charles J. Riefler, Springfield; vice-president, Charles J. Smalley, Galesburg; Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; secretary-treasurer, Walter Bush, Peoria Typographical union; directors, W. R. Boyer, Galesburg; John A. Taylor, Glen Carbon; Richard Stanton, Bartonville; John G. Taylor, Jacksonville; Albert Butler, Quincy; Frank C. Calhoun, Bloomington; John M. Ochs, Springfield. East St. Louis was chosen for the next meeting place. A resolution expressing sympathy with the Cuban revolutionists, demanding the government recognize them as belligerents, and requesting trade unions to work to this end was adopted.

HAS NOTIFIED SPAIN.

Rumor That Secretary Olney Has Acted on Behalf of Cubans.

Madrid, Oct. 11.—It is reported here on the best authority that the American government has notified the Spanish minister at Washington that it is necessary for Spain to act promptly in crushing the Cuban insurrection. This news has caused a profound sensation here.

Will Elect Officers To-day.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 11.—Bishop Breyfogle was the presiding officer at yesterday's session of the Evangelical general conference. The report of the committee on the state of the church was a comprehensive and eloquent paper. The various interests and prospects of the church were given in perspective, and in fervent words the advisable course for the future was pointed out. It was decided that, following immediately the election of four bishops this morning, the other general officers be chosen. The request that a special hymnbook be published for the primary departments of the Sunday school was granted. It is to be cheap in price and especially adapted to the wants of little people. It will be issued both in English and German. It now looks as if the conference might conclude its business by the middle of next week, in which event the session will have been a week shorter than was anticipated.

Opposition to the Prize Fight.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 11.—After having opened court yesterday Judge Duffie asked for the sheriff. Sheriff Hout answered the summons, and Judge Duffie stated to him that he had been informed and believed that an attempt would be made to bring the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight off in Hot Springs, and that he wished to call his attention to the fact that in doing so the principals would be breaking the laws of the state and outraging the dignity of the state of Arkansas. He would, in conjunction with Judge Teague, the prosecuting attorney, inform the sheriff at what stage it is his duty to interfere. The judge further stated to Mr. Hout that he had a right to call the posse comitatus, and that it would be a violation of the law for a citizen so called upon to refuse to respond.

AN ENGINE AND CARS GO INTO THE RIVER

ACCIDENT ON THE GRAND TRUNK LAST NIGHT.

The Fireman, Baggage-man and a Traveling Man are Injured—Wreck Occurred Near Petersburg, Ont.—Pittsburg Victims Will Recover Dynamite Is Used on a Train.

Petersburg, Ont., Oct. 11.—The engine and baggage car of a passenger train on the Grand Trunk railway ran into the river near here last night, and the fireman, baggage-man and a traveling man were injured.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—George Van Zandt and H. Kunkle, who sustained serious injuries in the wreck of the mail express of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Manor station Wednesday, are resting easy at the West Pennsylvania Hospital and will likely recover. The body of John Miller, the conductor, who was killed, was taken to Derry, where his family resides. He was forty years of age. So far as could be learned the other injured victims are in a fair way to recovery. The cause of the accident has not been definitely determined. A defective truck on the first car which left the track or a broken frog are the causes prominently assigned.

Use Dynamite on Trains.

Havana, Oct. 11.—A mixed train of passengers and freight cars, while passing the station at La Resbalousa, was attacked by the insurgents, who threw a dynamite shell between the freight and passenger cars. Five of those on board were seriously wounded and all the rest of the passengers were more or less injured. While another train, in which was General Suarez Valdes, was passing the same station insurgents put a dynamite cartridge on the track, but the explosion failed to do any damage.

HAVE A HOT DEBATE.

Questions of Alaskan Missions Stir Up Episcopal Convention.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 11.—The board of missions of the Episcopal church last evening debated a resolution offered by Bishop Gilbert, of Minnesota, which requested the house of bishops to immediately elect a bishop of Alaska. The debate was quite sensational. Bishop Rulison, of Central Pennsylvania, pleaded for a missionary bishop for Alaska, and he "hoped to God the Methodists and Presbyterians would occupy the field if his church did not woe up." He also spoke of the shame that would be upon them if they allowed the English church to occupy the Alaskan field.

Bishop Neely, of Maine, vigorously opposed what he called the sending of money for the petty work in Alaska. He intended to see the missionary funds more equitably distributed. He declared that the people there were inaccessible to missionaries. Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, defended the proposition for a bishop. Bishop Seymour and others made vigorous replies to the bishop from Maine, and Bishop Paret and others defended him. He said he deserved the thanks of the board for introducing a new era in missionary discussions. When the board adjourned for the evening the settlement of the question had been deferred until this evening.

A conference meeting will be necessary to decide where the next triennial convention shall be held. The bishops voted for Louisville yesterday and the deputies voted for Atlanta Wednesday. The bishops devoted some time to the consideration of the matter, and before voting for Louisville they voted down Atlanta and New Orleans. At the present moment it looks as though Louisville had the call, but if either side should prove to be obstinate in the conference Boston stands the best chance of being the compromise choice.

SIXTY HORSES ARE BURNED.

Destructive Fire at Chatham, New Brunswick, Yesterday Afternoon.

Chatham, N. B., Oct. 11.—The most serious conflagration that has ever visited this town broke out yesterday afternoon, it is supposed, in an ash heap on Muirhead street. A high wind prevailed, and the fire got such headway before the engines began to work that it was impossible to check the flames until sixty buildings were destroyed, entailing a loss of more than $50,000. About ten acres were burned over. Only one building remains standing on Foundry street, while all the houses on St. Michael street were destroyed. The cathedral and female academy on the borders of the burned district caught fire several times, but the flames were extinguished before they were seriously damaged. The Gillespie foundry and machine shop, and the Alex Robinson carriage and sleigh works are the only two factories destroyed. The other buildings were small stores and tenement houses. Most of the small dwellings were owned by poor people, and were not insured. The total insurance amounts to only about $15,000. About fifty people are homeless.

Small Fire in a Chicago Suburb.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Fire broke out in the lumber districts in Evanston last evening, and for a short time the section located between the tracks of the north and Church street was threatened. The district where the fire was mostly built up with frame buildings, and directly opposite the planing mill are located the Northwestern and St. Paul railways yards of the Evanston Lumber company. Several thousand feet of lumber was saved by the hard work of the firemen. The fire is thought to have been caused by a spark from a passing locomotive.

Spain Preparing for War.

In addition, it has become known that certain government officials have been discussing the question of arming the steamships belonging to the Spanish Transatlantic company, and it is believed that these preparations are due to the belief that there is a possibility that the United States may recognize the Cuban insurgents as belligerents.

SULTAN'S ANSWER DON'T SUIT.

The Foreign Envoys at Constantinople Held Another Meeting.

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—Yesterday it became known that the Turkish government had fully presented to the envoys of the six powers a reply to their collective note on the subject of the recent disturbances here. This reply, however, is not satisfactory to the ambassadors. The porte enumerated the measures taken to preserve order and declared that the Mussulmans were not the aggressors in the recent rioting, but that, on the contrary, the Armenians killed inoffensive Mussulmans. The porte added that so soon as the Armenian refugees leave the churches in which they have sought refuge the normal aspect of the city will be restored. It denies ordering that no food be supplied to the refugees in the churches and urges the ambassadors to assist in the work of restoring order, claiming that the Armenian agitators are intriguing to cause fresh disturbances. The note concludes with the assertion that the government is about to open an inquiry into the recent rioting with the view of discovering the guilty parties.

In view of the unsatisfactory nature of the porte's reply, the six ambassadors met to consider what shall be done further. It is expected that the dragomans of the different embassies will assist the Turkish officials in clearing the vicinities of the Armenian churches of the rioters infesting them and installing the refugees in their homes.

The sultan continues to be disturbed by the presence of the British fleet off the island of Lemnos and has sent again to the ambassador of Great Britain, Sir Philip Currie, to ask for the withdrawal of the British warships from the vicinity of the Dardanelles. Sir Philip, it is understood, persists in refusing to recommend the withdrawal of the squadron.

Advices from Trebizond, Armenia, confirm the report that a massacre of Armenians has occurred there. It is added that a general panic prevails in that city. The number of killed is not known.

Nothing definite has yet been heard from Sivas, Van or Bitlis, where disturbances between the Turks and Armenians are reported to have taken place.

A consignment of 5,000 Mauser rifles ordered by the Turkish government arrived here several days ago, but they still remain on the lighters to which they were transferred, as the bill of the manufacturers has not been paid, and the agents of the latter decline to give up the rifles until the money is forthcoming.

The judge advocate general's office of the war department has determined to take an appeal from the decision of Judge Bradley. This will carry the matter to the court of appeals of the District of Columbia.

COUNTY TALES TOLD IN A LINE OR TWO

BRILLIANT WEDDING CEREMONY AT MILTON.

Village Streets To Be Lighted—Burglars Work at Dunn, Boss & Company's Store—Boy Run Over By a Wagon—Other News From Round About.

Milton, Oct. 11—A very pretty wedding was celebrated here Wednesday in the Seventh Day Baptist church, when Miss Imogene Dunn, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Dunn was united to H. Lewis Belknap of Chicago. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and foliage plants. As the bride and her attendants passed to the altar where they were met by the groom and his best man, Albert Walker of Chicago, Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by the Crandall orchestra. The rich beauty and delicacy of the bride's attire was particularly noticeable, the dress being liberty satin with pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of bride roses.

There were two bridesmaids. Miss Isabel Garghill of Evanston, Ill., wearing green and white silk with pearl trimmings, and carrying La France roses, Miss Mayme Jones of Clinton, wearing white organdie over pink silk. She also carried La France roses. Seymour Ferris of Columbus and Eli Loofoof of Welton, Ia., were the ushers. Marie Belknap and Helen Humphrey were the flower girls and were followed by little Helen Belknap carrying the ring on a white satin pillow. Rev. E. M. Dunn, father of the bride performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Hiram Ferris of Columbus, uncle of the groom. The wedding ceremony was followed by a reception after which Mr. and Mrs. Belknap left for Denver and Colorado Springs. Mrs. Belknap is a talented, charming woman well known in musical circles and a great worker in church and society from which her presence here will be greatly missed.

Mr. Belknap is associated with the Creamery Package Co., of Chicago, and is a young man universally respected and deservedly popular among all who know him. Among the guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Belknap, Mr. and Mrs. George Rankin, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dunn, Omaha, Neb., Miss Cora Armstrong, Minneapolis, Professor and Mrs. J. N. Humphrey, White Water, Mrs. Humphrey, White Water, Mrs. Humphrey, Janesville, and John Barless, Janesville. The board of supervisors have decided to light the streets of this village and Milton Junction. Here they will purchase seven new lamps which they will place at railroad crossings and street corners. There are a number of lamps about the village not in use, and if permission is given the board to move them they will be set up in new locations and lighted. J. C. Clarke is at Rosendale this week looking after the better interest of a large dairy farm. Rev. Frank Miller, of Weyauwega, visited his Milton relatives this week. An attempt was made on Monday night to burglarize the store of Dunn, Boss & Co. In attempting to force the front door open the heavy door latch was broken and the noise woke Mr. Wheeler, who sleeps in the store, and he lighted a lamp, which caused the thieves to abscond. The manner in which the door was manipulated indicates that the job was done by professional crooks. The bank of Milton did a business of more than ten thousand dollars one day this week. Gov. Upham and Gen. Lucius Fairchild called on friends in this village Wednesday. Among those who attended the Fort Atkinson campfire Wednesday from this village were O. A. Friddell, W. P. Clarke, C. H. Goodrich, A. D. Burdick, S. S. Obourn and W. H. Weaver. Robert Bostwick, Miss Ray Bostwick and Mr. Bingham of Janesville, were the guests of Misses Sarah and Margaret Rodgers Tuesday. Miss Reta Crouch represented the Milton Seventh Day Baptist society at the Y. P. S. C. E. state convention at La Crosse. Miss Kittie Bliss was the junior representative from the Southern Wisconsin district. The wheel of a loaded lumber wagon ran over the body of Mr. Alfred Yates' three year old boy recently. Fortunately no bones were broken and he is coming out all right. A mangel wurzel beet weighing 19 1/2 pounds is on exhibition at Clarke Brothers'. It was grown by a German near the Bullock school house.

Miss Bertha Tank is visiting relatives at Appleton. Remember the change of the meeting of the Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. from 7:30 p. m. to 11 a. m. with Sunday School at 11:30 as usual.

LEOTTA WILL APPEAR TONIGHT Famous Reader and Personator Will Be at the Myers Grand.

Mlle. Leotta, the renowned reader and personator, will make her first appearance this evening at the Myers Grand in a programme of selections from Shakespeare and various other authors and a series of statue posings. She will be assisted by a very fine musical programme—organ recital—and the entertainment promises to be a real treat. We are not so often favored with a visit from a person whose reputation is to such a degree excellent as is that of Leotta, that those who appreciate a really fine evening's entertainment cannot afford to miss it. That there will be a full house is evidenced by the sale of seats and great credit is due those to whose enterprise we are indebted for this opportunity of hearing a lady who has appeared before the most cultured audiences in nearly all of the larger eastern cities. The scope of attainment for the personator is practically unlimited and an artist so versatile as Leotta undoubtedly is, should be able to please all the various tastes in her audience. The recital begins at 8:15 sharp and will occupy two hours.

HONEST LAD FOUND A CHECK Patrick Delaney Picked Up the Check Rev. R. L. Cheney Threw Away.

Rev. R. L. Cheney stepped into Yahn Bros' meat market to pay a bill, at the same time writing them a check for $6.30 on the First National bank. In writing the check the paper was blotted, so Rev. Mr. Cheney rolled it up and threw it in one corner. Then he wrote them another and walked out. When Yahn Bros. swept out that night, the piece of paper was left on the side walk and there it laid until the next morning when young Patrick Delaney came along and picked it up. It didn't take Delaney long to realize that the piece of paper was worth something, so the next morning he returned it to George Yahn, who was much surprised, supposing it to be the check he had taken to the bank. Then Mr. Yahn lost no time in getting to the bank, where he and Teller Croft ferreted out the mystery.

WHAT THE "LEAF" SAYS OF LEAF Our market jogs along in the same old rut and at about the same pace that has characterized it for several months.

LEVI CARLE has purchased several good lots of '92, among them being some of the best '92 tobacco grown in this state.

SEVERAL sales are on the string, and doubtless will be closed this week; '92 seems to have the call and in preference to all other crops.

AMONG the transactions reported are 63 cases '92 sold by C. F. Randall to L. B. Carle; 55 cases of '92 and 35 cases of '93 sold by George H. Rumrill. S. B. Heddles sold 27 cases '92 and F. S. Baines several small lots.

Perhaps a trifle more interest is manifested in picking up of any stray lots of '92 that may yet be in the hands of farmers and small dealers. A great deal of this tobacco has changed hands during the past few months and is getting rapidly thinned out, but little remaining in the hands of farmers, and some of our packers have but small lots on hand.

To a man up a tree it looks as though Janesville dealers have been doing the bulk of the leaf business of the state for some time past. In the reports from Edgerton, Stoughton and other places the names of F. S. Baines, Norman Carle, S. B. Heddles, J. L. & M. F. Greene, G. H. Rumrill and other local dealers figure conspicuously.

WHY ELKHORN'S FAIR BEATS ROCK COUNTY

MUCH ASKED QUESTION IS ANSWERED.

Delavan Enterprise Takes Up the Item a Gazette Correspondent Wrote and Says the Absence of "Kicking" and Seeking of Personal Gain Is the Cause of Their Success.

"Why does Elkhorn have a bigger fair than is given in Janesville?" That question has been asked a good many times.

The Gazette's Tiffany correspondent sent in the following among his items a few days ago:

"It's a great pity that Rock county cannot beat Walworth county on fairs. The city of Janesville alone can do it if the effort is rightly made. The fair at Elkhorn last week was not as good as the fair at Janesville last year. But, oh, the people! How they twarped on Thursday!"

That paragraph caught the eye of the Delavan Enterprise man, and his answer was as follows:

"The Enterprise does not undertake to say why Rock county with all its wealth and intelligence, does not 'beat Walworth on fairs.' Perhaps, however, the following may contain a few 'pointers,' that may help to enlighten The Gazette and its readers on that subject. To start with, the people of Walworth county want a good fair, and are willing to work together to that end. They have long since dismissed the notion that it is a concern for individual money making. It is the last thing our people think of to use the fair for speculative purposes, or for personal gain. They rent out that privilege to the fakirs. Selfishness is a rock that has wrecked so many enterprises, that our agricultural society steers just as far from it as possible.

There are no "Kickers." "The next is a perfect unanimity of sentiment in its favor. There are no kickers, except among the display of horses and mules. There are no conflicts in the management, the officers being allowed to exercise their own judgment without dictation from any quarter. We aim to put in the best talent we have for officers and then stand by them. One captain at a time is sufficient. Then there is a sentiment of fairness prevailing among the people that the managers are always wise enough to observe. Every man, woman and child, black or white, is made to feel that their presence is welcome and that they 'wa a share of the show. The 'big bugs' occupy no more space nor command no more attention than the man who labors from morning till night for a wage. In the awarding of premiums only the quality of the articles competing is known. The humble housewife safely competes with the rich creamery corporations and receives the blue ribbon for her butter because it is the best. Favoritism is an unknown art in awarding prizes. Then again we always have something worth securing the more the exhibits are diversified the better All Turn in and Help.

"A lover of good horses is not satisfied with looking at big pumpkins nor is a mechanical genius interested in a 'hoss trot.' Our officers aim to get something to interest every body, no matter what their taste may be. A corpse will only make a dead officer at the best and as live men are needed we choose only live men for officers and then all work together with them for a successful fair. We don't set up nights finding fault and growling because we don't get the first premium, nor scold because we were not met at the front gate on arriving, and escorted through with a brass band. Our folks do not ask nor expect a dead head ticket for the whole family and all the acquaintances, but pay at the ticket office just as they would for a pair of shoes at the store. We go to the fair to help it, instead of gouging something out of it. Our people always take some articles to add to the exhibit. It may not be the best on parade, but it helps to make a show. And then it is such a grand occasion for social greetings. Farmer Belknap is overjoyed at meeting farmer Thompson, who make haste to compare notes again about the best methods of raising sheep, and which are the most profitable breed of cows.

A Work of Cooperation "Aunt Jane shakes all over with laughter like a cup of Pennsylvania apple-jack at meeting Mrs. Spriggins and her family. The country lads take delight in leading the lassies from the popcorn to the peanut stands and see each other blush as they sip a glass of lemonade, while here and there, all over the crowded grounds are groups of friends chatting like magpies over the gossip of the day. Sociability is one of the grandest features of the Walworth county fair and is an attraction for people to come. And finally, the people of Elkhorn patronize it. They all go, young and old, and all make exhibits and pay their way. They manifest a local pride in its success that brings a sure victory. Their enthusiasm goes out into every community in the county and that fires up the neighborhood and causes them all to attend. It is a work of cooperation and union throughout, and that is why it is always the 'Best Fair.'

LIQUOR THE ENEMY OF GOOD CATHOLICS

HARMS THE CHURCH MORE THAN ANY OTHER SIN.

Father Murphy Says the Ex-Priests Go From the Brewery to the A. P. A.—Women are Not Free From the Vice—Intoxicants Responsible For Ireland's Oppression.

A strong plea for the suppression of the rum demon was made by Very Rev. Father Murphy, of La Crosse, in his lecture at St. Patrick's church last evening, and his remarks were listened to by a large audience. The lecture had a double significance, it marking both the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of St. Patrick's T. A. & B. society, and the birth of Father Mathew the noted temperance orator.

Intemperance, Father Murphy said, was doing the church more harm than any other sin, although there were worse sins than intemperance. Catholics were noted for their purity, but the church was called the "saloon-keepers' church." He dwelt upon the crime the saloons caused, and said he never found one that was kept by a saint, he said, and sketched the saloonkeeper theoretically, and practically.

"While the liquor seller claims to be doing a legitimate business under a legal license, yet 'by their fruits shall ye know them' he insisted, but theoretically the manufacture of liquor was not a curse.

Ex-Priest Industry Flourished.

Continuing he said that while times had been hard, there was one thing that had flourished—the ex-priest industry. They were the product of the brewery, he said, and the A. P. A. When the priest graduated from the brewery, he was ripe for the A. P. A. Father Murphy continued, and the downfall of them all could be traced to the use of liquor, not at the saloon, but by keeping it in the house.

But men were not the only drinkers, he said; women used the amber fluid too. "You see sweet young fairies tripping along looking as if they had lived on angel food," he said. "You would not think they could 'rush the growler,' but they can, and do. Women want a little 'bracer' on washday, or a 'cooler' on ironing days—and they take it. Society ladies are going at a rapid gait, and they take a drink once in a while, too. With the poor people, intoxication is a 'plain drunk,' he said; 'but with the rich it is nervous prostration. The only way to stop beer drinking with some people, is to tie a hard knot on their necks.'

The Pledge Was Taken.

Father Murphy said he was opposed to people having liquors on their tables, and insisted that if liquor was driven out of Ireland, the country would soon be free of England, as liquor was the cause of the split in the Irish party in parliament. Nosh, he said, was the first drunk, and he "didn't know it was loaded."

"Let all who desire to take the pledge stand up and I will administer it," he said in closing, but no women answered.

"Don't any of you ladies want to keep from drinking this year? The men will have a lonesome time. They will be out hunting up their wives," he said, whereupon some ladies stood up and some gentlemen arose. After administering the pledge, Father Murphy closed by saying: "God give those sense who don't have it to stand up."

The church was well filled despite the unfavorable weather, and the large audience listened to Father Murphy's lecture with marked interest.

PERHAPS THIS MAY HELP YOU.

"My food does me no good," you say. Then it does you harm. There is no halting place between these extremes. Digested food gives health and strength. Undigested food sours, or ferments, in the stomach and becomes a poison to the whole body. It causes headache, heart palpitation, liver and kidney trouble, distress after eating, pains in the chest and side, and the tired, languid, heavy feeling we hear so much about. When the digestion goes wrong every function of the body goes wrong. Yes, and the mind, too. Men fall in business and die poor for no other reason than this—they are weakened, dulled and stupefied by dyspepsia. The lives of a host of women are blighted in the same way. You may be one of the miserable multitude. The writer of these lines was one of your number a short time ago. I tried dozens of things to get cured: just as you have done, no doubt. The thing which at last succeeded with me may succeed with you. It is a discovery of those wise and good people—the Shakers, of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y.—called the Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is not a purgative which at best only gives transient relief. It is in itself a digested food and also a corrector of the digestive functions. You can eat and digest your food while taking this cordial. It helps you at once and soon makes the stomach vigorous and healthy. It is not like any other so-called dyspepsia cures. It is prepared by the Shakers principally from herbs cultivated by them. They do not ask us to spend a dollar for a bottle while we are in the dark as to its virtues. They take that risk themselves. Almost any druggist will sell you a trial bottle for ten cents, so you can see whether it is what they say—and adapted to your case. And isn't even the MEREST CHANCE of a cure worth that much?

Wear and Worn.
When the tired factory operative, the weary outdoor laborer, the overtasked bookkeeper or clerk seeks a medical recompense for expenditure of bodily force, where shall he find it? Could the recorded experience of thousands of workers be voiced, the verdict would be that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters renews failing strength, stimulates the faded mental powers to fresh activity, and relaxes undue nervous tension as nothing else does. Digestion, a regular habit of body, appetite and sleep are promoted by it, and it is an admirable auxiliary in the recovery of health by convalescents. A fastidious stomach is not offended by it, and to persons of both sexes in delicate health who occasionally feel the need of an efficient tonic, the whole range of the pharmacopoeia and the catalogue of proprietary medicines does not present a more useful, safer or more decisive one. It is also incomparable for fever and ague, rheumatism and kidney troubles.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. D. Stevens.

A Good Show.
A merchant was busy in his office when a book agent called on him. "I have something to show you," insinuated the agent, slipping and sliding up to the desk. The merchant looked up. "And I have something to show you," he said, politely. "I beg your pardon," said the puzzled peddler.

"I have something to show you," repeated the merchant, rising and pointing across the room. "It has hinges on it and a knob, and it will shut behind you. Good day," and he sat down again as the agent accepted the present and passed out.—Golden Days.

COMING INTO THE LIGHT.

As election draws near the chance of republican success in Maryland and Kentucky seems to be brighter. It is said that the democratic managers in Kentucky are very much discouraged at recent developments, and it is certain that the tide appears to be running steadily against them. There are thousands of democratic business men in the state who will not vote with their party, but who are saying nothing in a public way. Hardin is making a brave fight, and if he wins will owe the victory very largely to his own efforts. The republican candidate is also carrying on a vigorous and aggressive campaign.

In Maryland the Gorman forces are battling with all their might, but are showing signs of discouragement. One evidence that their confidence is not strong appears in the fact that they are making the most of the race question, as is also being done by the Kentucky democrats. The democratic candidate for governor in Maryland is telling the voters that if the republican party is successful negroes will be appointed to office and white supremacy in the state will be jeopardized. The Baltimore Sun combats the idea, insisting that there is not the least danger of the colored race acquiring ascendancy but it is quite probable that the race question will have an influence with some of the voters. The chance of republican success in Maryland is regarded as exceedingly good, many prominent democrats have declared against the Gorman candidates and there being manifested among the rank and file of the party a strong determination to stamp out Gormanism, regardless of the future effect on the democracy.

NEW STATE HOME

A. O. Wright who recently inspected the Rock county asylum and pronounced it a model in design and management has completed a tour of the state. He is now going through his notes to determine the number of the idiotic or feeble minded in the various county asylums in the state. Three have discharged all their idiotic and in nineteen Mr. Wright found ninety nine cases. He gives it as his opinion that there are between two and three hundred cases of feeble minded in the poor house of the state.

There are estimated to be 3000 feeble minded in Wisconsin and the need of a home apart from insane asylums is manifest. The new Chipewa Falls institution is expected to open with three hundred inmates but this number is likely to grow rapidly.

MANY CHANGES.

It is fourteen years since General Mahone by his bolt showed how an ambitious man's future may be destroyed. What a hole death has made in the United States senate in that time! When Mahone's voteturned the scale, Matt H. Carpenter was one of his fellow members; Roscoe Conkling was ruling the politics of New York from his senate chair, and Eli Sausbury, Benjamin H. Hill, Joseph E. Brown, David Davis, John A. Logan, Preston P. Plumb, James E. Beck, William Windom, L. Q. C. Lamar, Zebulon B. Vance, George H. Pendleton, Henry B. Anthony, and Howell E. Jackson, were all on the senate roll.

The interest of the administration in the boundary dispute between England and Venezuela may have no connection with the fact that administration democrats are financially interested in certain concessions granted by Venezuela in the disputed territory, and then again it may. Who knows?

The latest lie about Theodore Roosevelt is that he has a room papered with all the newspaper caricatures of himself that have been printed. Why there isn't a room in the world big enough to hold them all.

Senator Gorman is now singing "Maryland My Maryland" with a lusty voice. After the election he'll sing "A Heart Bowed Down by Woe," if he has voice enough left to sing at all.

Most people would have supposed that Senator Hill would have his time fully occupied in New York this fall without going to Ohio to add to the hopelessness of Campbell's campaign.

Miss Vanderbilt's Duke kicked almost as much at being made to "keep off the grass" in a little New York town, as Cæsar did in Washington.

How much of the $10,000,000 made by the bond syndicate will be contributed towards securing another nomination for Mr. Cleveland?

The better grade of publications, daily, weekly and monthly, will not go into mourning when the paper trust puts prices up.

A WONDERFUL CURE.

AN IOWA LADY PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

Suffered Twenty-Five Years From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble—Remarkable Manner in Which She Became Fully Cured.

(From Mich. Christian Advocate.)

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, an estimable lady residing at Lynville, Jasper Co., was for twenty-five years a sufferer from Dyspepsia, and her complete restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the facts in the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom have doubtless suffered in the same manner and will, therefore, be interested in learning how all stomach troubles may be avoided and cured. Mrs. Skeels says: I used only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact it has been six months since I took the medicine and I have not had one particle of distress or difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was incurable as I had suffered for twenty-five years. I want half a dozen packages to distribute among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy. Truly yours,

MRS. SARAH A. SKEELS.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of to-day is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the State of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package, or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

NEW LIGHT THROWN ON BOSTWICK SUIT

B. B. ELDRIDGE UNEARTHED
AN 1865 JUDGMENT.

Title To Valuable Main Street Business Property Was Determined by a Trial In the Dane County Court Over Thirty Years Ago—Many Titles Affected.

B. B. Eldridge, attorney for J. M. Bostwick in the Richardson-Bostwick case filed for record today a judgment of great importance. It bears upon the title of all who purchased real estate from A. Hyatt Smith as administrator of the estate of Daniel A. Richardson, deceased. The judgment if over thirty years old but has only been discovered within the last few days. Mr. Eldridge unearthed it after laborious research among Dane county records there being nothing whatever on the records of the Rock county court except an order for a change of venue, which he stumbled upon, after a page by page examination of the court records for the sixties. As will be seen a judgment of the greatest significance to Rock county people was wholly lost sight of for thirty years through the loose manner of keeping the county records. The judgment bears directly upon the claim made by A. R. Richardson and others for the south-third of the land on which J. M. Bostwick's stores stand as well as much other valuable business property on South Main street and three residence lots near South Third street. The judgment reads as follows:

Circuit court Dane county, April term A. D. 1865. To wit: Thursday, May 4, 1865.

William H. Richardson, Sarah A. Richardson, Adeline M. Richardson, Adam R. Richardson and Emily J. Richardson, minors under the age of twenty-one years, by Stephen C. Spaulding, their next friend, John C. Richardson and Susan E. Milmore: Versus. A. Hyatt Smith, administrator of the estate of Daniel A. Richardson, deceased, William M. Tallman, Henry C. Matteson, George E. Dexter and George C. Tallman.

This action having been referred to Samuel J. Todd as sole referee to hear, try and determine, and he having filed his report in writing: On motion of J. A. Sleeper, of counsel for defendants, it is ordered and adjudged that the said report and all things therein contained be. And the same is hereby confirmed; and it is further ordered and adjudged that the defendants are entitled to judgment in their favor upon all the issues raised by the pleadings in this action, and the same is hereby entered; that in particular the sales of the real estate of the said Daniel A. Richardson made by A. Hyatt Smith as administrator were regularly and legally and fairly made, and the conveyances thereof vested in the purchasers a good and valid title in fee simple, and that such sales and conveyances be and they are hereby ratified and confirmed; and the title to such parts thereof as are now held by the said George C. Tallman, William M. Tallman and George E. Dexter; and the same is hereby confirmed in them respectively as the same are now held by each of them or their respective grantees; that the purchase of claims against said estate by said William M. Tallman was legal, valid and equitable, and that in his hands or in the hands of their assignees, they are valid claims against said estate, and entitled to be paid pro rata out of the assets thereof the same as any other claim and for the amount now unpaid are entitled to pro rata proportion upon any future distribution that may be ordered by the county court for Rock County, and that the legal title in fee simple to that portion of lot 5 in block 44 of the original plat of the village of Janesville known and described as twenty-four feet front and rear next south of the center of said lot 5 and now held and vested in said George C. Tallman be and the same is hereby also confirmed in him, May 4, 1865. By the Court. ALVA STEWART, Judge.

THE BRIDE OF A DAY IS LEFT PENNILESS

WIFE AT MILWAUKEE.

After Justice Richardson Had Made Them One They Went to the Cream City—While Mrs. Parmlee Was Out Calling, Solon Picked Up the Duds and Left.

Solon W. Parmelee doesn't seem to have just the right idea of the obligations he assumed when he told Justice Richardson a few days ago, that he not only would take Mrs. Elizabeth Ziese for better or for worse—but that he had come to Janesville for that purpose.

After the justice had tied the knot, Mr. and Mrs. Parmelee left for Milwaukee. The latter was desirous of calling on some old friends in the Cream City, so it was decided that she should take Mr. Parmelee's little girl with her, while he remained at the depot to guard the effects until their return. The new Mrs. Parmelee had all of her worldly goods with her, including about $300 in money, jewelry and other articles, and these she left with her husband.

When she returned her husband was gone, and nothing has been seen or heard of him since. The valuables and baggage were also missing, and the supposition is that he took them with him. The bride of but a day was almost prostrated, and was left in a pitiable condition, Mr. Parmelee having taken everything that she had on earth and left his child for her to support.

Friends Think Him Deranged.

Friends of the man believe that his mind is deranged and that he will turn up somewhere in a peculiar manner. Mr. Parmelee has had much trouble and sorrow and it would not be at all surprising to those who know him if such turns out to be the case.

His first wife and two children were burned to death in Wisconsin, before his very eyes, he being powerless to help them. His second wife died in Rockford six months or more ago soon after giving birth to a babe. This is his third marriage.

The couple intended to live at Sheboygan Falls, Wis., where Parmelee's wife's relatives reside, and she succeeded in getting to that place, where she is at present. Search has failed to reveal any trace of the runaway groom and some fears are entertained that he has made away with himself.

Mr. Parmelee formerly conducted a restaurant in Rockford but sold out the business after the death of his second wife several months ago.

Mahoney for the defendant.

M.M. CARROLL'S FARM IS SWEEPED BY FIRE

TOWN OF PORTER MAN LOST HEAVILY LAST NIGHT.

All the Buildings on the Place Except the House and Corn Crib Destroyed—Eight Hogs Were Roasted—Horses Rescued With Difficulty—Loss Partially Covered By Insurance.

Fire destroyed nearly all the buildings on Michael McCarroll's farm in the town of Porter at 12:30 o'clock last night, beside roasting eight hogs and destroying part of his crops. The loss is heavy and but partially covered by insurance.

McCarroll lives thirteen miles west of the city near Gibbs lake. A child of Mrs. W. Conway, who was at the McCarroll home, was sick, and Mrs. Conway arose at 12:30 o'clock to give the babe some medicine. When she got up she noticed a bright light shining in the window, and on looking out, saw the tobacco shed was afire. She hastened to call the men, but they could do nothing to stay the flames. From this shed the tongues of fire leaped to another that was used as a barn, and from there to the hog pen. In the latter edifice eight hogs were quartered, and they were all burned. In the barn were two buggies, and the farming tools and several sets of harness. All were burned except one harness and the corn and tobacco planters. The three horses were rescued with difficulty. All of McCarroll's crop of hay and tobacco were burned, but the corn crib and dwelling were saved, the wind being in the direction that carried the flames away from them. Mr. McCarroll was in town today and says the building was insured in the Germania Company of Freeport, but for what sum he could not state. Neither could he estimate his loss, but it will be heavy.

SUNDAY'S SERMON BY DR. TALMAGE

A POINT-BLANK QUESTION TO NON-BELIEVERS.

All Who Have Not Yet Accepted the Faith of Jesus Christ Asked the Reason Why—"Is Thine Heart Right?"
—II Kings x:15.

ITH mettled horses at full speed, for he was celebrated for fast driving, Jehu, the warrior and king, returns from battle. But seeing Jehonadab, an acquaintance, by the wayside, he shouts, "Whoa! whoa!" to the lathered span. Then leaning over to Jehonadab, Jehu salutes him in the words of the text—words not more appropriate for that hour and that place, than for this hour and place: "Is thine heart right?"

I should like to hear of your physical health. Well myself, I like to have everybody else well; and so might ask, is your eyesight right, your hearing right, your nerves right, your lungs right, your entire body right? But I am busy to-day taking diagnosis of the more important spiritual conditions. I should like to hear of your financial welfare. I want everybody to have plenty of money, ample apparel, large storehouse, and comfortable residence; and I might ask, is your business right, your income right, your worldly surroundings right? But what are these financial questions compared with the inquiry as to whether you have been able to pay your debts to God; as to whether you are insured for eternity; as to whether you are ruining yourself by the long-credit system of the soul? I have known men to have no more than one loaf of bread at a time, and yet to own a government bond of heaven worth more than the whole material universe.

The question I ask you to-day is not in regard to your habits. I make no inquiry about your integrity, or your chastity, or your sobriety. I do not mean to stand on the outside of the gate and ring the bell; but coming up the steps, I open the door and come to the private apartment of the soul; and with the earnestness of a man that must give an account for this day's work, I cry out, O man, O woman, immortal, is thine heart right?

I will not insult you by an argument to prove that we are by nature all wrong. If there be a factory explosion and the smokestack be upset, and the wheels be broken in two, and the engine unjointed, and the ponderous bars be twisted, and a man should look in and say that nothing was the matter, you would pronounce him a fool. Well, it needs no acumen to discover that our nature is all awry and askew and unjointed. The thing doesn't work right. The biggest trouble we have in the world is with our souls. Men sometimes say that, though their lives may not be just right, their heart is all right. Impossible. A farmer never puts the poorest apples on top of his barrel; nor does the merchant place the meanest goods in his show window. The best part of us is our outward life. I do not stop to discuss whether we all fell in Adam, for we have been our own Adam, and have all eaten of the forbidden fruit, and have been turned out of the paradise of holiness and peace; and though the flaming sword that stood at the gate to keep us out has changed position and comes behind to drive us in, we will not go.

The Bible account of us is not exaggerated when it says that we are poor and wretched and miserable and blind and naked. Poor: the wretch that stands shivering on our doorstep on a cold day is not so much in need of bread as we are of spiritual help. Blind: why, the man whose eyes perished in the powder blast, and who for these ten years has gone feeling his way from street to street, is not in such utter darkness as we. Naked: why, there is not one rag of holiness left to hide the shame of our sin. Sick: why, the leprosy has eaten into the head and the heart and the hands and the feet; and the marasmus of an everlasting wasting away has already seized on some of us.

But the meanest thing for a man to do is to discourse about an evil without pointing a way to have it remedied. I speak of the thirst of your hot tongue, only that I may show you the living stream that drops crystalline and sparkling from the Rock of Ages, and pours a river of gladness at your feet. If I show you the rents in your coat, it is only because the door of God's wardrobe now swings open, and here is a robe, white with the fleece of the Lamb of God, and of a cut and make that an angel would not be ashamed to wear. I snatch from you the black, mouldy bread that you are munching, it is only to give you the bread made out of the finest wheat that grows on the celestial hills, and baked in the fires of the Cross; and one crumb of which would be enough to make all heaven a banquet. Hear it, one and all, and tell it to your friends when you go home, that the Lord Jesus Christ can make the heart right.

First we need a repenting heart. If for the last ten, twenty, or forty years of life, we have been going on in the wrong way, it is time that we turned around and started in the opposite direction. If we offend our friends we are glad to apologize. God is our best friend, and yet how many of us have never apologized for the wrongs we have done him!

There is nothing that we so much need to get rid of as sin. It is a horrible black monster. It polluted Eden. It killed Christ. It has blasted the world. Men keep dogs in kennels, and rabbits in a warren, and cattle in a pen.

What a man that would be who would shut them up in his parlor? But this foul dog of sin, and these herds of transgression, we have entertained for many a long year in our heart, which should be the cleanest, brightest room in all our nature. Out with the vile herd! Begone, ye defoulers of an immortal nature!

Turn out the beasts and let Christ come in! A heathen came to an early Christian, who had the reputation of curing diseases. The Christian said, "You must have all your idols destroyed." The heathen gave to the Christian the key to his house, that he might go in and destroy the idols. He battered to pieces all he saw, but still the man did not get well. The Christian said to him, "There must be some idol in your house not yet destroyed." The heathen confessed that there was one idol of beaten gold that he could not bear to give up. After awhile, when that was destroyed, in answer to the prayer of the Christian, the sick man got well.

Many a man has awakened in his dying hour to find his sins all about him. They clambered up on the right side of the bed, and on the left side, and over the head-board, and over the foot-board, and horribly devoured the soul.

Repent! the voice celestial cries, Nor longer dare delay: The wretch that scorns the mandate dies.

And meets a fiery day. Again, we need a believing heart. A good many years ago a weary one went up one of the hills of Asia Minor, and with two logs on his back cried out to all the world, offering to carry their sins and sorrows. They pursued him. They slapped him in the face. They mocked him. When he groaned they groaned. They shook their fists at him. They spat on him. They hounded him as though he were a wild beast. His healing of the sick, his sight-giving to the blind, his mercy to the outcast, silenced not the revenge of the world. His prayers and benedictions were lost in that whirlwind of execration: "Away with him! Away with him!"

Ah! it was not merely the two pieces of wood that he carried; it was the transgressions of the race, the anguish of the ages, the wrath of God, the sorrows of hell, the stupendous interests of an unending eternity. No wonder his back bent. No wonder the blood started from every pore. No wonder that he crouched under a torture that made the sun faint, and the everlasting hills tremble, and the dead rush up in their winding-sheets as he cried: "If it be possible, let this cup pass from me." But the cup did not pass. None to comfort.

There he hangs! What has that hand done that it should be thus crushed in the palm? It has been healing the lame and wiping away tears. What has that foot been doing that it should be so lacerated? It has been going about doing good. Of what has the victim been guilty? Guilty of saving a world. Tell me, ye heavens and earth, was there ever such another criminal? Was there ever such a crime? On that hill of carnage, that sunless day, amid those howling rioters, may not your sins and mine have perished? I believe it. Oh, the ransom has been paid. Those arms of Jesus were stretched out so wide, that when he brought them together again they might embrace the world. Oh, that I might, out of the blossoms of the spring, or the flaming foliage of the autumn, make one wreath for my Lord! Oh, that all the triumphal arches of the world could be swung in one gateway, where the King of Glory might come in! Oh, that all the harps and trumpets and organs of earthly music might, in one anthem, speak his praise!

But what were earthly flowers to him who walketh amid the snow of the white lilies of heaven? What were arches of early masonry to him who hath about his throne a rainbow spun out of everlasting sunshine? What Seems as if consumption always picks out the brightest and best. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths that occur in the world are caused by consumption. Many things were once considered impossible. It would be strange if medical science did not make progress. The telephone and telegraph, the phonograph, the electric light—all were once impossible, and once it was impossible to cure consumption. That was before the time of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Taken according to directions, this standard remedy will cure 95 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is caused and fostered by impurity in the blood. It is cured by purity and richness of the blood—surely, certainly cured by the "Medical Discovery." It builds up solid healthy flesh and vigorous strength.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a 1000 page medical work, profusely illustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

ARCHIE REID & CO.

were all earthly music to him when the hundred and forty and four thousand on one side, and cherubim and seraphim and archangels stand on the other side, and all the space between is filled with the doxologies of eternal jubilee—the hosanna of a redeemed earth, the hallelujah of unfallen angels, song after song rising about the throne of God and of the Lamb? In that pure, high place, let him hear us. Stop! harps of heaven, that our poor cry may be heard. Oh, my Lord Jesus! it will not hurt thee for one hour to step out from the shining throng. They will make it all up when thou goest back again. Come hither, O blessed One, that we may kiss thy feet. Our hearts, too long withheld, we now surrender into thy keeping. When thou goest back tell it to all the immortals that the lost are found, and let the Father's house ring with the music and the dance.

They have some old wine in heaven, not used except in rare festivities. In this world, those who are accustomed to use wine on great occasions bring out the beverage and say, "This wine is thirty years old," or "forty years old." But the wine of heaven is more than eighteen centuries old. It was prepared at the time when Christ trod the wine press alone. When such grievous sinners as we come back, methinks the chamberlain of heaven cries out to the servants, "This is unusual joy! Bring up from the vaults of heaven that old wine. Fill all the tankards. Let all the white-robed guests drink to the immortal health of those new-born sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty." "There is joy in heaven among the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth," and God grant that that one may be you!

Again, to have a right heart it must be a forgiving heart. An old writer says, "To return good for evil is God-like; good for good is man-like; evil for good devil-like." Which of these natures have we? Christ will have nothing to do with us as long as we keep any old grudge. We have all been cheated and lied about. There are people who dislike us so much that if we should come down to poverty and disgrace, they would say, "Good for him! Didn't I tell you so?" They do not understand us. Unsatisfied human nature says, "Wait till you get a good crack at him, and when at last you find him in a tight place, give it to him. Play him alive. No quarter. Leave not a rag of reputation. Jump on him with both feet. Pay him in his own coin—sarcasm for sarcasm, scorn for scorn, abuse for abuse." But, my friends, that is not the right kind of heart. No man ever did so mean a thing toward us we have done toward God. And if we cannot forgive others, how can we expect God to forgive us? Thousands of men have been kept out of heaven by an unforgiving heart.

Here is some one who says, "I will forgive that man the wrong he did me about that house and lot; I will forgive that man who overreached me in a bargain; I will forgive that man who sold me a shoddy overcoat; I forgive them—all but one. That man I cannot forgive. The villain—I can hardly keep my hands off him. If my going to heaven depends on my forgiving him, then I will stay out." Wrong feeling. If a man lie to me once, I am not called to trust him again. If a man betray me once, I am not called to put confidence in him again. But I would have no rest if I could not offer a sincere prayer for the temporal and everlasting welfare of all men, whatever meanness and outrage they have inflicted upon me. If you want to get your heart right, strike a match and burn up all your old grudges, and blow the ashes away. "If you forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your heavenly Father forgive you your trespasses."

An old Christian black woman was going along the streets of New York with a basket of apples that she had for sale. A rough sailor ran against her and upset the basket, and stood back expecting to hear her scold frightfully, but she stooped down and picked up the apples, and said, "God forgive you, my son, as I do." The sailor saw the meanness of what he had done, and felt in his pocket for his money, and insisted that she should take it all. Though she was black, he called her mother, and said, "Forgive me, mother, I will never do anything so mean again." Ah! there is a power in a forgiving spirit to overcome all hardness. There is no way of conquering men like that of bestowing upon them your pardon, whether they will accept it or not.

Is thy heart right? What question can compare with this in importance? It is a business question. Do you not realize that you will soon have to go out of that store, that you will soon have to resign that partnership, that soon among all the millions of dollars worth of goods that are sold, you will not have the handling of a yard of cloth, or a pound of sugar, or a penny worth of anything; that soon, if a conflagration should start at Central Park and sweep everything to the Battery, it would not disturb you; that soon, if every cashier should abscond, and every insurance company should fail, it would not affect you? What are the questions that stop this side the grave, compared with the questions that reach beyond it? Are you making losses that are to be everlasting? Are you making purchases for eternity? Are you jobbing for time when you might be wholesaling for eternity? What question of the store is so broad at the base, and so altitudinous, and so overwhelming as the question, "Is thy heart right?"

Or is it a domestic question? Is it

something about father, or mother, or companion, or son, or daughter, that you think is comparable with this question in importance? Do you not realize that by universal and inexorable law all these relations will be broken up? Your father will be gone, your mother will be gone, your companion will be gone, your child will be gone, you will be gone, and then this supernal question will begin to harvest its chief gains, or deplore its worst losses, roll up into its mightiest magnitude, or sweep its vast circles. What difference now does it make to Napoleon III. whether he triumphed or surrendered at Sedan? whether he lived at the Tuilleries or at Chislehurst, whether he was emperor or exile? They laid him out in his coffin in the dress of a field marshal. Did that give him any better chance for the next world than if he had been laid out in a plain shroud? And soon to us what will be the difference, whether in this world we rode or walked, were bowed to or maltreated, were applauded or hissed at, were welcomed in or kicked out, while laying hold of every moment of the great future, and burning in all the splendor of grief, and overarching and undergoing all time and all eternity, is the plain, simple, practical, thrilling, agonizing, overwhelming question, "Is thy heart right?" Have you within you a repentant heart, an expectant heart? If not, I must write upon your soul what George Whitefield wrote upon the window pane with his diamond ring. He tarried in an elegant house over night, but found that there was no God recognized in that house. Before he left his room in the morning, with his ring he wrote upon the window pane, "One thing thou lackest." After the guest was gone, the housewife came and looked at the window, and saw the inscription, and called her husband and her children; and God, through that ministry of the window-glass, brought them all to Jesus. Though you may to-day be surrounded by comforts and luxuries, and feel that you have need of nothing, if you are not the children of God, with the signet ring of Christ's love, let me inscribe upon your souls, "One thing thou lackest!"

ALL AT SEA

But Finally Rescued from Danger.
Result of Taking a Friend's Advice.

There are thousands of women to-day entirely at sea, so to speak, as far as their ailments are concerned.

They are overtaken by some female complaint, and send for their doctor in all haste. He usually tries this and that without success; he is all at sea, and his poor patient is with him. Suddenly a lady friend tells the sufferer to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because it has cured her.

The following letter shows the result of that trial, and is a sample of thousands of similar cases happening daily.

"I had been very sick for a long time; doctored with many prominent physicians. They pronounced my case dyspepsia, and said there was a tendency to cancer of the womb. There was a sense of fullness and weight in stomach after meals, loss of appetite, and offensive belching of wind, dizziness, 'all gone' feeling in pit of the stomach; headache, heartburn, palpitation at times, urine high colored. A lack of interest in all things.

"The doctor's medicines gave me but little relief. I was almost in despair, when a friend advised your Compound. I took it, and am now perfectly well. I can recommend it to all women. A number of my friends and neighbors have taken it on my recommendation, and have always found relief."—Mrs. JAMES CHANKSHAW, Frankford, Pa.
